

Lot Number BD2920

Description

Finely carved alabaster statue of two babies with grapes, bears the signature "Pugi," Circa 1890's.

Guglielmo Pugi, Firenze, Italy. Born in Fiesole, Pugi studied throughout Italy and developed his art in the form of sculptures in alabaster and marble. He often used mythological and allegorical subject with his work flourishing in Florence from 1870 to 1915.

Approximate Dimensions

22"H x 14"W x 8"D

Red Baron

Decorative Art

